SOC/SOCYG FAMILY PICNIC

SOC/SOCYG PICNIC - The joint picnic was a great success. We had well over 100 SOC/SOCYG members and their families come out to enjoy the afternoon on June 18 @ Schabarum Park. The shave ice was by far the biggest hit. Scott Iwamoto and Gene Murakami were working the shave ice machine for four hours straight. Next year we have to bring both machines and make sure to give Scott and Gene a break. The 22-foot high jumper/slide was a close second and was enjoyed by the kids and a few adults seemed to enjoy it, too. Bob Wada spoke about the history of the Suburban Optimist Club and helped fill in some gaps between SOC and SOCYG. Everyone had a really good time, especially the kids. We'll definitely have another picnic next year.

A special thanks to Arnie Sakamoto for donating hundreds of hamburger and hot dog buns. Also, thank you to Karen Iwamoto for researching and reserving the picnic site. The site exceeded everyone's expectations.
